

Announcement: Winner of the Open Call for Proposals

We are pleased to announce that Alliance of Mental Health Centers (in Czech: Aliance center duševního zdraví) has been selected as the recipient of the WHO's Open Call for Proposals: Supporting Social Cohesion and Integration of the Most Vulnerable Groups of Ukrainian Refugees in Czechia by Strengthening the Sustainability of Community MHPSS Services Provision in the Regions.

Alliance of Mental Health Centers was chosen for their innovative and sustainable approach to delivering mental health and psychosocial support (MHPSS) services to the most vulnerable Ukrainian refugees. Their proposal demonstrated a strong commitment to improving the well-being of refugees residing in collective centers and shelters, ensuring long-term integration and support within the Czech health system.

We look forward to working together with Alliance of Mental Health Centers to help address the pressing needs of these communities.

Congratulations to Alliance of Mental Health Centers (Aliance center duševního zdraví), and thank you to all who submitted their proposals!
